

Reconciliation Through Film YOUTH SPEAK!

What does reconciliation
mean to YOU?

Reconciliation
SASKATCHEWAN

Join youth from across Saskatchewan – First Nation, Métis, Inuit and non-Indigenous – for two days of fun, creativity and joint learning. You'll learn about reconciliation, meet other young leaders, and get a short tutorial on how to make movies with your smart phone. Using what you've learned, you'll then create a brief film to tell the world what you think about the future of your communities, your province, and your country.

The Office of the Treaty Commissioner and Canadian Roots Exchange will host this series of three workshops, and cover participants' travel and accommodation expenses.

Training sessions will take place over 2 days. Please only apply if you are available for the full duration of the training.

WHO SHOULD ATTEND?

All Youth aged 18-29 years.
We will strive for cultural, regional and gender diversity.

Youth interested in developing:

- leadership qualities
- intercultural communication capacities
- networks with other youth leaders
- technical skills for making films with your smart phone
- a better future in Saskatchewan for all
